

Dear Campus Outreach Greenville Supporter,

Thank you for your continued financial support of Campus Outreach Greenville. Your selfless giving makes it possible for our staff to Glorify God by Building Laborers on the Campus for the Lost World. We are very thankful that the Lord has moved in your heart to partner with us in reaching college students with the Gospel of Jesus.

In an attempt to save you money and time, as well as to ensure that gifts are received each month, we are implementing a system that allows you to give your financial gifts electronically. This process is called Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT). EFT is a transfer system used by banks, businesses, and individuals to transfer funds from one bank account directly into another without the use of checks. By using EFT you will save time and money by not having to write checks, purchase stamps, or mail gifts to Campus Outreach Greenville.

The process for using EFT is simple and hassle free. Just return the attached form to Campus Outreach Greenville. By doing this you give your bank and Campus Outreach Greenville permission to transfer a predetermined amount from your checking or savings account each month. Campus Outreach will continue to handle your donation as it does now; this will include sending you a monthly receipt that reflects the previous month's giving. You can change or stop your giving through EFT at any time you want by just notifying Campus Outreach Greenville in writing.

To begin using EFT, complete the following steps:

COMPLETE the authorization form to the right
ATTACH a voided check (checking account) or a deposit slip (savings account)

MAIL the authorization and voided check or deposit slip along with the return portion from your last receipt using the enclosed envelope.

Please allow 2-4 weeks for processing. You will receive either a letter or e-mail confirming that we've processed your authorization form and telling you when your first EFT draft will occur.

If you have any questions, please contact us at the Campus Outreach Office at 864-268-2218 ext. 220 or cogreenville@mrpca.org.

Thank you for your continued support of Campus Outreach Greenville.
